Modern Lives = Digital Lives

Estate planning has evolved far beyond wills, trusts, and physical property.Today, individuals increasingly maintain significant portions of their personal, financial, and professional lives online, leaving a digital footprint of their lives behind. This creates new challenges for estate planning attorneys and legal professionals alike.From cryptocurrency and online banking to cloud storage, social media accounts, digital photos, subscription services, and electronic business records, digital assets are now an essential consideration in modern estate planning.

This webinar explores the growing role of digital assets in estate planning, including practical considerations, legal authority, fiduciary access, privacy concerns, and organizational strategies that help clients and legal teams prepare for the realities of a digital world.

This Webinar is Designed for:

- Legal support professionals
- Litigation assistants and paralegals
- Attorneys
- Law office administrators
- Law students and emerging legal professionals

This presentation is approved for California Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit in the amount of 1.0 credit hours and approved for CCLS recertification credit in the amount of 1.0 hour.
