

LPI LEGAL PROFESSIONALS INCORPORATED

Educating California's Legal Support Professionals

Rules of Professional Conduct: Understanding the Recent Changes

A Two-Part Series

Thursday, January 7 and 14, 2027

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm

The Rules of Professional Conduct have changed—do you know what's new? This two-part CLE series will break down the recent updates, explain how they affect your daily practice, and provide practical guidance to stay compliant.

Each presentation is approved for California Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) credit in the amount of 1.0 credit hours, including 1.0 credit hours of ethics credit. Each presentation is also approved for 1.0 hour of CCLS credit.

FREE for members | $75 for non-members
(for both webinars)

Presented By

Heather L. Rosing, Esq.

Heather L. Rosing is a Founding Partner of Rosing Pott & Strohbehn and leads the firm's Complex Litigation and Professional Liability Department and its Discipline Defense, Ethics, and Risk Management Department. A Certified Specialist in Legal Malpractice Law, she is widely recognized for her work in complex litigation, professional negligence, fraud, fiduciary duty, and legal ethics matters. She also represents professionals in administrative and disciplinary proceedings, including matters before the State Bar of California and the Commission on Judicial Performance.

Joanna Lee Mischer, Esq.

Joanna Lee Mischer focuses her practice on professional liability, risk management, and legal ethics for lawyers and law firms. She is the Immediate Past Chair of the Legal Ethics Committee of the Bar Association of San Francisco and also represents judicial officers before the California Commission on Judicial Performance. A Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US), she regularly speaks and writes on ethics, risk management, privacy, cybersecurity, and technology competence.