Webinar Overview

A strong attorney/legal professional partnership is built on more than completing assignments. It is built on trust, communication, judgment, and mutual respect. This program explores what attorneys value most in the legal professionals they rely on, what legal professionals need from their attorneys to do their best work, and how both can strengthen the working relationship.

Learn practical strategies for communicating effectively, anticipating needs without overstepping, navigating different work styles, building credibility, and creating the kind of professional partnership where trust runs both ways.
