LIVE EDUCATIONAL WEBINAR

Where's the Line? Supervising Legal Staff and Preventing the Unauthorized Practice of Law

THURSDAY • FEBRUARY 25, 2027

12:00pm–1:00pm PT | Live via Zoom

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Delegation keeps a practice running, but missteps can create unwanted risk. This practical seminar helps California attorneys and their support staff understand what they can and cannot do, from client communications and intake to document preparation and fee discussions. Learn the supervising attorney's duties, spot common UPL pitfalls, and leave with ideas and protocols you can put to work in your office.

FEATURED SPEAKER

Maida Farrar, CFLS

Maida Farrar is a Certified Family Law Specialist with more than a decade of experience representing clients in complex family law matters, including litigation, mediation, appeals, and settlement. She is also qualified to serve as Minor's Counsel and brings extensive experience as a mediator and CDC Certified Divorce Coach. In addition to her legal practice, Maida teaches professionals in the family law community about the Unauthorized Practice of Law and the important boundaries between legal professionals and non-attorney service providers. She earned her J.D. from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, and is admitted to practice in both California and Florida. Maida is committed to helping families navigate challenging legal matters through thoughtful, practical, and individualized solutions.
