Wim van Rooyen is an Administrative Law Judge with the Office of Administrative Hearings, State of California. In that capacity, he presides over formal administrative hearings and issues written decisions in cases involving professional licensing discipline, state disability retirement, services to individuals with developmental disabilities, state contract bid protests, certificated teacher dismissals, and other administrative law matters. Before appointment as an Administrative Law Judge, he served as a Career Law Clerk at the United States District Court, Eastern District of California for approximately 8 years. He also previously practiced commercial litigation as an associate at Greenberg Traurig's Sacramento office.

Wim will be talking about what the Office of Administrative Hearings does and discuss the differences between OAH and civil courts.

Legal Professionals, Inc. is an approved provider, and certifies that this seminar has been approved for minimum continuing education credit in the amount of 1.0 hours by the State Bar of California.
